STANDING RULES AND REGULATIONS

MISSION STATEMENT: “The mission of the Washington State Quarter Horse Youth Association is to improve and promote the American Quarter Horse. We are committed to seeing young people grow through their accomplishments in competition and recreational riding. Furthermore, we encourage sportsmanship, scholarship, and community outreach that will enable us to learn life skills and prepare us for the future.”

-Erin Calcagni

THIS IS AN AMENDMENT TO THE WASHINGTON STATE QUARTER HORSE YOUTH ASSOCIATION BYLAWS. THESE STANDING RULES AND REGULATIONS ARE PART OF/ AND ARE INCLUDED IN THE BYLAWS OF THE WASHINGTON STATE QUARTER HORSE YOUTH ASSOCIATION.

SECTION ONE: POINT TABULATION

- A. A. AQHYA points will be awarded according the AQHA/AQHYA system from the current “Official Handbook of Rules and Regulations.” AQHA and AQHYA points will only be awarded to members in good standing. National qualifying points are accumulated from May 1st through April 30th.
- B. B. WSQHYA points will be awarded according to the “Standing Rules and Regulations” of the WSQHA. WSQHYA points will only be awarded to members in good standing. Points to count from date of postmark on envelope of membership application. Washington State Points are accumulated January 1st through December 31st.
- C. C. Points will be tabulated on one horse, one youth basis. A youth may exhibit more than one horse, however the points will be kept separately on each horse.
- D. D. An assessment fee of one dollar ($1.00) per youth entry will be paid to the WSQHYA from WSQHA for each WSQHA approved quarter horse show.

SECTION TWO: YEAR END AWARDS

All member of the WSQHYA in good standing with this association, all dues and fees having been paid, showing an AQHA registered horse (Walk/Trot able to show any breed), and satisfying AQHA rules set forth for youth competition, are eligible to compete for year end awards. Points to count from date of postmark on WSQHA membership. Points earned prior to WSQHYA membership shall not count towards year end awards. January 1st through December 31st of each year is the qualifying period. Only AQHA shows given WSQHA approval will count for youth year end awards. Youth shall be cautioned that an infraction of any AQHA, WSQHA, or WSQHYA rule, whether or not intentional, may result in disqualification from year end awards, at the discretion of the board of elected WSHQYA officers and/or advisors. Year-end awards will be distributed at the annual WSQHA convention. If an award winner cannot attend the convention, it is the responsibility of the winner to make arrangements with the Youth Advisor to pick them up. WSQHYA cannot be responsible for mailing or delivering awards after the annual convention. Year-end awards not picked up by March 1st will be forfeited.

In addition to all other Standing Rules regarding year end awards, QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS FOR WSQHYA YEAR END AWARDS include the following:

- A. Each youth must attend three (3) WSQHYA meetings during the qualifying period. If the WSQHA annual convention is held after November 1st of the qualifying year it will count as one meeting for the following year. If a youth member is unable to attend the three required youth meetings, they also have the option of attending a general WSQHA board meeting. This option is ONLY extended to those WSQHA meetings held BEFORE the month of October of the qualifying year to fulfill the requirement. The WSQHYA youth member's attendance must be noted by the executive WSQHA secretary.

- B. WSQHHA membership is due January 1st of each year. State points will be tabulated beginning with the day the membership is paid to the WSQHA office, Post mark or Show Secretary. Memberships paid prior to May 31st are required to complete their 125.00 fundraiser, as voted on by the current years officers, by 5 pm on Saturday of the WSQHA May Trophy Circuit. If the designated fundraiser is not completed by deadline the youth is not eligible for year end awards for the points calculated from time of sign up. Those members that sign up after May 31st or did not participate in the fundraiser they must contribute $125 to qualify for year end awards by the end of the NW Emerald. 11 & Under Walk/Trot category will raise half of the funds required.
- C. Each youth must serve on a committee a minimum of four hours or volunteer at a WSQHA approved show for a minimum of 4 hours. 11 & Under Walk/Trot shall complete 2 hours. Hours must be approved by Committee Chairperson and youth advisor for hours to count. Queen and ambassador hours will not count for committee hours. Committee selection will be done at the annual WSQHA Convention youth meeting. Any youth not in attendance at this meeting will be placed on one of the five committees as needed. It will be the responsibility of the youth not attending convention to contact the youth advisor and/or committee chairs to be placed on a committee. Hours must be completed and approved by September 15th.
- D. A youth class must be offered at least four times (under four separate judges) during the calendar year to qualify for a year end award. In addition, a youth and horse must have a minimum of five points to qualify. The horse must receive a score and/or placing. A score of zero or a disqualification by the judge will not count.

Above requirements MUST be met to qualify for year end awards.

Year end awards will be given to the top two point earners in qualifying classes under the separate youth classifications of Youth-Ages 18 & Under, Youth-13 & Under, and Youth 14-18. Year end awards will be given to the top three point earners in qualifying classes under the separate youth classifications of Novice Youth-18 & Under, Rookie, level one Walk/Trot, and 11 & Under Walk/Trot. In the event of a tie, the award will be decided by most wins, most seconds, and most AQHA points in that class, respectively. The actual value will be determined by the Youth Advisor and the awards budget.

11 & Under Walk/Trot participants who have completed all the eligibility requirements who did not receive a top three award in any qualifying class will receive a participation award.

In addition to individual class awards the following categories will also receive year end awards:

- A. Rookie Youth All Around Champion, All Around Reserve Champion, Third Place, Fourth Place, Fifth Place, Sixth – Tenth Place recognition. All and only points received from designated "Rookie" youth classes will be tabulated for this award (no level one or youth classes to count)

A WSQHYA Sportsmanship Award will be given annually. This award is determined by the WSQHYA general membership via email by nominations and voting.

An Advisor's Award will be given by the Youth Advisors at their discretion to a youth who demonstrates the objective, purposes, and mission of WSQHYA.

SECTION THREE: WASHINGTON STATE YOUTH WORLD TEAM

Only members of the AQHYA and the WSQHYA in good standing with these associations, all dues and fees having been paid by May 31st of the qualifying year, owning and showing an AQHA registered horse, and satisfying AQHA rules set forth for youth competition, are eligible to compete for a Washington State World Team position. Points to count from postmark date of WSQHA membership and/or AQHA notification (for National qualifiers). Points earned prior to AQHYA and WSQHYA membership shall not count toward a Washington State World Team position. Youth shall be cautioned that an infraction of any AQHA, WSQHA, or WSQHYA rule, whether or not intentional, may result in removal from the state world team, at the discretion of the board of elected officers and youth advisors.

Every member of the Washington State Youth Team must be a legal resident of the State of Washington or a full time student in residence at a public or private educational institution within the State of Washington for the school year in which the exhibitor wishes to show. A student must apply to WSQHYA for acceptance and must provide verification of the student's attendance at such school and verification of residence for the show year prior to acceptance of application. Also, a non-resident WSQHYA member may be eligible for a position on the Washington State Youth Team if the applicable hardship application/waiver is appropriately filed with, and approved by AQHA. In cases of hardships to out of state affiliates, if the May 10 deadline from AQHA is in effect, WSQHYA will hold hardships to determine if the candidate is eligible to state qualify in their chosen events. If on May 2nd, the candidate is unable or ineligible to participate with Washington in their chosen events, we will release the candidate to hardship into their chosen affiliate. All hardship applicants must comply with all the qualifying rules of WSQHYA.

1. Current WSQHYA member.
2. Participate in youth meetings (in person or via conference call)
3. Submit letter of intent.
4. Committee hours.
5. Participate in Youth Worlds Fundraiser.

All national qualifying youth meeting the requirements set forth by the WSQHYA Bylaws and "Standing Rules and Regulations" will receive an invitation to participate with the Washington State Youth Team at the AQHYA World Show. The AQHYA national qualifying points for the Washington State Youth Team are accumulated from May 1st through April 30th.

Washington State qualifying points for the 2021 Washington State Youth World Team are accumulated from June 1st, 2019 through May 31st, 2021. Points for the Washington State Youth Team may only be accumulated on weekends and holidays (as defined by a "Standing Rule" from the WSQHA.). During the months of July and August, points from all days will count.

CALCULATION OF POINTS: Points will be awarded as determined by the Washington State Quarter Horse Association Bylaws and are acquired pursuant to the straight 9-8-7-65-4-3-2-1 basis plus AQHA points earned (refer to AQHA official handbook of rules and regulations). The number of points received per judge, will be considered a score upon which the highest eight scores received during the state qualifying period will determine the state world qualifying standings. At the end of the qualifying period, the final scores will be tabulated and the top six riders/ handlers in each qualifying class will be invited to represent Washington State at the AQHYA Word Show.

In the event of a tie the following rules will be used to break the tie:

1. Most wins... if still tied:
2. Most seconds... if still tied:
3. Most AQHA points in that class

The next highest scores will select alternates (No age restrictions on alternate qualifiers). Should vacancies still remain, all reasonable criteria will be considered in the selection process by the WSQHYA board and Youth Advisors.

The qualifying classes will be youth-18 & Under, youth-14-18, and youth-13 & Under. The youth that are ages 14 through 18 on January 1st of the show year will have precedence over the youth that are 13 and younger on January 1st of the show year for the first four positions on the WSQHYA World Show Team. The fifth and sixth positions will have no age restrictions... it will be determined by highest point tabulation only.

In addition to all other "Standing Rules" regarding the Washington State Youth World Team, QUALIFICATION FOR A POSITION ON THE WASHINGTON STATE YOUTH WORLD TEAM includes the following:

1. Attend one mandatory World Team Planning Meeting with Parents or Guardians.
2. Earn $200.00 in cash sponsorships or donate $200.00 to the WSQHYA World Youth Team to pay for team expenses in Oklahoma. After sponsorships or cash equivalent has been turned in, there will be no refunds. $100 additional sponsorship money will be required for each additional horse/rider combo.
3. Participate in one specified WSQHYA fundraiser to a $150 value or contribute $150 cash donation.
4. While at the AQHYA World Show, join team members in the "Parade of Teams" and pose for a WSQHYA Team picture.
5. As representatives of Washington State and WSQHYA, Team members shall, at all times, conduct themselves in a becoming manner. Stalls (horse, tack, and feed) and aisles must be kept clean during the entire week.
6. Have a completed mandatory WSQHYA World Youth Team "Letter of Intent" on file with the Youth Advisor on/or before February 15th and have all other qualifications completed on/or before June 1st of the qualifying year.

If the qualification points #2 and #3 cannot be met, a youth may still be eligible by contributing a cash equivalent of $350.00 by June 1st of the qualifying year. Any Washington State qualifying youth unable to meet the WSQHYA State Team Qualifications will forfeit their position to an alternate WSQHYA World Team member.

A Washington State youth who receives a national invitation to compete at the AQHYA Youth World Show is encouraged to participate as a Washington State Team member. If the youth chooses not to or is unable to participate in the Washington State Youth Team qualifications, designation as a WSQHYA Team member will be lost and the individual will not be eligible for a WSQHYA support which may include, but is not limited to, team outfits, participation gifts, stall and tack room charges, stall decorations, team pictures, and activities. Tack room space and stalls will be available to all non-team members at the standard rate within the Washington State designated area.

The WSQHYA will pay for the cooling fan expenses for the World Show Team. All other expenses need to be covered by the $200 sponsorship fee paid by each team member. The team may vote to pay for additional expenses out of pocket if they choose if the World Show team budget will allow.

The WSQHYA will pay for World Show related expenses not to exceed the World Show budget for that respective year. These expenses may include but are not limited to fans, tack stalls, stall decorations, etc. All other expenses in excess of the budget may be voted on by the team to be an out of pocket expense.

The youth advisor will have expenses paid for the youth worlds after they participate in a minimum of $600 in fundraising.

SECTION FOUR: WASHINGTON STATE DELEGATES

Each year WSQHYA will elect four delegates to represent Washington State at the annual Youth Excellence Seminar (Y.E.S.) in Amarillo, Texas. These delegates will be able to run for Regional Offices and National Positions within the AQHYA structure. Delegates understand that it is a requirement for youth Delegates to be chaperoned by an adult. If no adult is willing or able to attend, the youth Delegates will not attend the conference. Please read current year YES rules and guidelines on the AQHA website. For YES the members are able to use the WSQHYA designated fundraisers to earn money to pay for YES expenses. If youth member raises a minimum of $825 all monies raised in excess of the $125 base fundraiser can be used for YES airfare, hotel and seminar fees with a minimum of $875 that will be allotted for expenses relating to this event. Advisor or chaperone will have the cost of airfare and chaperones room when split with YES attendees of expenses. If there are more than 6 youth attending then two chaperones will be allowed to attend and allotted for. For horse bowl, horse judging and speech contests at Youth Worlds the members are able to use the WSQHYA designated fundraisers to earn money to pay for expenses.

If youth member raises a minimum of $875 all monies raised in excess of the $125 base fundraiser can be used for horse bowl, horse judging and speech airfare, hotel and seminar fees with a minimum of $875 that will be allotted for expenses relating to this event.

Youth shall be cautioned that an infraction of any AQHA, AQHYA, WSQHA, or WSQHYA rule, whether or not intentional, may result in removal from Delegate position at the discretion of the board of elected officers.
